Who, after being by me duly sworn, on oath deposes and says: I was born in Dallas, Texas, I attended Dallas schools and I finished high school at Forest High in 1955. I now work for my brother Johnnie Reynolds. He owns a car lot at 500 East Jefferson. I was working at this lot on November 22, 1963. Shortly after noon I heard a gun shot. This shot was followed by a series of four or five other shots. I looked out the window and saw a man running toward Jefferson Street from Tenth street. This man I now know was Lee Harvey Oswald. He was running in the middle of Patton and was waving a pistol around in his right hand. He ran to the corner of Jefferson and Patton and ran across a corner of the lawn. He then put the pistol under his belt and walked west on Jefferson. I then followed him and he walked one block west where I saw him walk behind a Texaco station where I lost sight of him. I did not see anyone else following Oswald. This was the last time I saw Oswald in person.
